this collection presents perspectives into the pristine field of phenomenology philosophy of life conceived by Tymieniecka initiated in the Analecta Husserliana and unfolding with each volume this new and original philosophy reaches to the inner workings of nature as well as to the innermost recesses of the human creative condition opening a basic starting point for all philosophy life the theme of our times finds at last a profound philosophical treatment this collection of essays by thirteen renowned specialists in the fields of French Renaissance literature and history is a fitting tribute to the scholarship of Pauline Smith Emeritus Professor in French at the University of Hull and research associate of the Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Studies Trinity College Dublin the essays which focus on areas of research to which Professor Smith has herself given and continues to give particular attention are organised into two frequently converging strands court and humour the contributors engage with political and cultural issues at the heart of the construction and aesthetic expression of the french renaissance whilst also offering insights into the broader european context the collection as a whole challenges and revises a number of established views and identifies paths for future research
